

Helen Whelan, First Term (2011)
Professional Representative

Helen has worked as an attorney in Montgomery County since 1997. After working as a public accountant for 9 years, she earned a law degree from Catholic University in 1997. As an attorney with McMillan Metro, P.C., Helen gained extensive experience with the legal requirements of real estate transactions, residential subdivisions, condominiums and corporate/business transactions.

Helen has been admitted to the bar in Maryland, the District of Columbia and West Virginia.

Ms. Whelan's primary focus is estate and tax planning, estate administration and elder law. She is currently a partner at Elville & Associates, P.C. and will attain an L.L.M. in Tax from Georgetown Law in May 2011.